COMPANY PROFILE

Production plant San Giovanni al Natisone

Cantarutti family

Dal bosco alla sedia

SF COLLECTION is a furniture company based in Italy near the town of Cividale del Friuli is now lead by the third generation of Cantarutti family, the production steps take place in house, in our two plants located in Manzano and San Giovanni Al Natisone we say " dal bosco alla sedia " from the forest to the finished chair

Focalizzati sui dettagli

We paid attention to the details that turn a standard product into an high-end product. Thanks to our modern CNC machines and high skilled artisans every chair is a masterpiece of italian quality made to last over the years. Our items are tested by CATAS and the company is FSCcertified.

Personalizzazione

Every item of our collection is customizable. We offer a wide range of standard options as fabrics, finishes, glides, brass socks, fire retardant varnish, CMHR foam... Furthermore it s possible to ask us for a bespoke option like pipings, studs, handle, finishing to match customer color.

Fatto su misura

On request we manufacture bespoke items. We manufacture bespoke items for single projects; after getting the sketch of the item (chair table, lounge, sofa, ottoman) we develop a prototype to get the final aprovation and start the production. During this process there is a constant cooperation and dialogue with the client to help him to find the best solution, the client is involved in our production process to get an unique product

L'approccio al cliente

We establish a long-time cooperation with our clients, we support our clients and help them to find the best product and meet their needs. We have an office staff that supports our customer before during and after the shipping. Every request is carried out within one labour day, our standard lead time is 3-4 weeks

Una lunga storia

the story of SF COLLECTION started after WW2 as trading company and saw-mill.

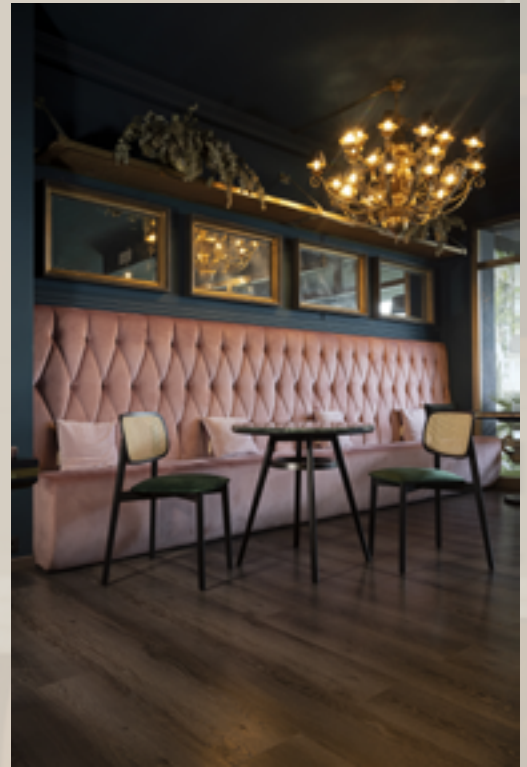

Cantarutti family is carrying forward a legacy of values and traditions in the processing and trade of solid wood. Buying our items mean buying a little piece of this tradition and legacy certified.

Un singolo interlocutore per molti progetti in SF COLLECTION you find a single player with a wide range of items to meet every request.

We offer our catalogue and bespoke products that make every contract project a unique project.
